Max Lane Award Winning Photographer	1, 3, 6	Max is passionate about wildlife, landscape/seascape and travel photography. Since retiring he has travelled extensively to pursue these photographic interests including travel to Antarctica, North America, Iceland, Greenland and several trips to Africa. He has successfully entered International and National salons since 2012 with over 100 awards across several photographic genres including 4 medals in Vigex print salons. Max is an active member of the Frankston Photographic Club.

Mario Mirabile MAPS EFIAP	1, 3, 6	Mario is an enthusiast photographer who has been involved in photography since the early eighties. He pursued other interests over the years, but the advent of digital photography rekindled his love of creating images. Joining the Caulfield Photographic Society in 2010 provided an avenue to explore and develop his creativity and vision, and he became passionately re-immersed in photographic art. He practices many genres of photography, but sees himself primarily as an observer and interpreter of the urban environment through stylized street photography and urban landscapes. He can often be found roaming the streets and laneways of Melbourne, seeking out the sparse and graphic backdrops he favours. He has participated with success in local, national and international exhibitions, particularly in nature, monochrome and street genres, and has been a finalist in major photographic prize exhibitions. Mario is an active member of the Caulfield Photographic Society and the Australian Photographic Society and Australian Photographic Judges Association.	 A portrait photograph of Mario Mirabile, a middle-aged man with short grey hair and glasses, wearing a dark red shirt. Gary Smith Diploma Photo Imaging	1, 3, 6	My real interest in photography began in the 1970's. I was a happy snapper for years until becoming involved in maritime archaeology, and underwater photography. I became more deeply involved with photography in 2013, joining my first camera club to help me improve my ability and explore more skills. Since that time, I have completed a Diploma of Photo Imaging in 2017. During my years as the manager for publications with Toyota Motor Corporation I undertook some photographic projects including turning photographs into line art for instructional use in repair manuals and owner manuals. I'm keenly interested in landscape and nature photography. More recently I have begun exploring the abstract and creative side of photography. I am the training director for the Australian Photographic Judges Association of Australia having joined this association in 2016. I enjoy judging and giving feedback, both technical and creative, hoping to inspire budding photographers to make the best of their opportunities.	 A portrait photograph of Gary Smith, a middle-aged man with short, light-colored hair, wearing a dark blue button-down shirt. Deborah Mullins Award Winning Professional Photographer	2, 4, 5	Deborah is a photographer from rural Victoria, Australia. Her studio, situated in 4 acres of stunning gardens, is just out from the picturesque town of Woodend and close to Hanging Rock. Specialising in art photography and mixed media her continuing experimentation means her work is constantly evolving with the use of the photographic medium alone and in combination with acrylic painting. A recurring theme comes from her love of the Australian landscape. Many of her artworks involve complex post processing combining many different images to create a new vision. Deborah's exceptional work has won a large number of awards with the Australian Institute of Professional Photography at national and state level. She has also exhibited in many group and solo exhibitions. Follow this link for more details. http://vigex.org.au/2021_Digital/Deborah Mullins CV.pdf
